

Crime and Punishment

| Key Vocabulary |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| AD             | Anno Domini – ‘in the year of our Lord’. AD is used to show dates after the birth of Jesus.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Magna Carta    | Is Latin for ‘Great Charter’. Signed by King John in 1215. Magna Carta is one of the most famous and influential documents in English history. It had 63 clauses trying to curtail the power of the monarch. What did Magna Carta do? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>established the freedom of the Church</li> <li>protected free men from the arbitrary demands of their monarch</li> <li>allowing that certain taxes could only be raised with the barons’ consent</li> <li>re-established feudal rites</li> </ul> |
| Runnymede      | Magna Carta was signed in Runnymede near London.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Monarch        | King or queen                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Liberty        | Freedom                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |

| Key Figures   |                                                                                                                                                                       |
|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| King John     | King of England in 1215 and signed the Magna Carta with powerful barons                                                                                               |
| Hugh of Wells | Hugh of Wells, the then Bishop of Lincoln was present at the sealing and made sure a copy was brought back to Lincoln. It is one of only 4 copies in existence today. |
|               |                                                                                                                                                                       |